(HUBER MANIFEST)

(FORMAT)

Huber is not about first, second or third places. It's about pushing the limits of what's actually possible on a skateboard. This usually works best when skating together in a session. At the end of a session, it is always difficult to decide who was the best skater / trick / etc. Our judge team will still try their best. Next to the best tricks, they'll also reward those who represent the core values of skateboarding most: dedication, creativity, individuality, non-conformity, etc. There will be slightly different formats at each session, from total chaos best trick to more organized jam sessions.

(EVERYONE IS WELCOME)

We don't care which gender, religion, sexual orientation or nationality you feel or belong but we love to watch great skateboarding by all kind of people. Put in your best effort for the session and our judges will consider to reward it accordingly.

(KNOW YOUR ABILITIES)

Attention! Huber is not providing perfect ground and ideally shaped ramps. The spots are rough and anything but easy to skate. Not for beginners at all and not for unexperienced skaters. Everyone is welcome to skate along in the sessions, but please think twice, because if you slam hard or get hurt, a lot of people will be watching. We reserve us the right to dismiss skaters who are obviously super sketchy on their boards, behave in an uncompanionable or disrespectful manner or skate drunk to the spectator area.

(REGISTRATION)

Skaters who want to take part at the HUBER sessions will have to sign-up for the event. Watch out for the registration signs on site. The fee to enter competition is 10 €.

(PRIZE MONEY)

There will be a total prize money of 5.000 € that will be split on the different sessions.
